BOSTON DAILY ADVERTISER, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1867.—SUPPLEMENT.

The Testimonial to Mr. Garrison.

SECOND REPORT.

The Executive Committee of the National Testimonial to William Lloyd Garrison, in making a second report of subscriptions received for this object, wish to correct the impression somewhat prevalent, that the proposed sum of fifty thousand dollars has been already obtained. This is by no means the case; nearly twenty thousand dollars are still needed to complete this just and honorable tribute. The committee deem it very desirable that this amount should be contributed at once, and before Mr. Garrison's return from Europe, in order that an early subsequent day may be taken to present the completed testimonial, proof of the regard and honor in which his life and singular services are now held.

At this time, too, they would offer their acknowledgments and thanks to those, everywhere, in America and Europe, who have so cheerfully, often wholly unsolicited, given their names and contributions to this object;—to those numerous journals, also, which in all parts of the country have given their approval and able support to it;—and particularly to the Boston Daily Advertiser, for its publication of their reports without charge, a most valuable contribution to the testimonial fund.

The committee therefore invite all those who, approving this national expression of respect, have not yet joined their names to it, to lose no time in doing so,—be their contributions large or small,—that the entire work may be completed forthwith. All communications are best made to our secretary and assistant-treasurer, Rev. SAMUEL MAY, jr., P. O. box 3605, Boston; and, if possible, before the first of November.

Boston, Sept. 30, 1867.
